Why sponsor a TechMarketView event?

Our flagship event presents sponsors with a range of benefits including the opportunity to increase visibility in the UK tech arena, to develop relationships through networking with peers and potential customers and to generate recognition with key stakeholders. Consider:

Thought leadership at the highest levels – our event attracts senior execs from across the tech scene

Brand value across the sector – the event is promoted widely on UKHotViews & Twitter reaching more than 20,000 UK tech leaders

Lead & partnership generation opportunities – engage directly with key individuals

In addition, all sponsors benefit from a range of brand awareness raising activities as part of their sponsorship.

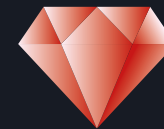

Sponsorship Packages

Our packages offer a range of opportunities to become involved as a sponsor of our flagship event.
